

Candidate Profile

Moipone Nesengani
Unit Head, Credit Risk Management
Services
Citibank NA South Africa

Academic Credentials

Moipone is a Chartered Associate of the Institute of Bankers having followed the risk management stream. She also studied Statistics, Commercial Law and Business Management through Unisa.

Current Work Description

Moipone is currently working for the South African franchise of Citibank as a senior credit risk associate, heading the NPC Africa Sub-Saharan FI and Public Sector business based in Johannesburg. Her portfolio spans some 23 countries within the Sub-Saharan Africa cluster with a portfolio size of USD 7.5 Bn. The day-to-day dynamics of her job include managing credit risk, as screened by the bank's target market and risk acceptance criteria, ensuring that the extension of credit and cross border is consistent with approved parameters; providing comprehensive relationship support for business and product areas for credit related matters, consulting on credit facilities, and preparing credit approval documents; following established procedures and coaching bankers to ensure compliance with credit policy and process requirements; providing portfolio reports; taking ownership of global risk reporting data for assigned portfolios; and ensuring quality data reporting for Basel II.

Business Credentials and Skills

Moipone began her banking career in the late 80s, having worked for three local banks before joining Citibank. She has spent most of her banking years at Citibank and has experience working in the areas of operations, customer services, relationship management and credit risk management.

Personal and Professional Learning Objectives

Moipone's learning objectives for this programme are to:

- Unlock the value in her as a leader that remains untapped
- Gain broader industry visibility through networking
- Reflect on barriers and incorporate new success factors, and
- Broaden her strategic thinking capabilities and strengthen her leadership qualities.

Personal Information

Moipone Nesengani is a mother of two and a devoted Christian. She is passionate about interior designing and decorating and enjoys the associated shopping. Some of her interests include cooking, aerobics and travelling. Her wish is to help and be active in an institution or club for children in whom she has a vested interest. She is a strong believer in youth development.