

Candidate Profile

Videshree Rooplall
Senior Analyst
South African Reserve Bank

Academic Credentials

Videshree graduated from the University of Natal with a BCom degree in 1997 and completed her BCom Honours degree (Economics) through the University of South Africa (UNISA) in 2002.

Current Work Description

Videshree is a Senior Analyst with the Financial Stability Department. Her responsibilities include conducting economic research on financial stability and economic issues, monitoring and analysing financial system trends, writing reports and providing technical and research assistance to her department, the South African Reserve Bank and external stakeholders.

Business Credentials and Skills

Videshree has experience working in the areas of central banking, stock broking and financial markets, corporate banking, retail banking and retail trade. She has also developed skills in economic modelling and project management.

Personal and Professional Learning Objectives

Videshree's learning objectives for this programme are to:

- Define basic principles of life to be able to reason more effectively
- Advance her capacity to think strategically and critically
- Develop more effective management and leadership capabilities
- Improve her listening, mentoring and copying skills, and
- Become a better mentor and coach.

Personal Information

Videshree Rooplall is married and lives in Midrand, Gauteng. She has two daughters aged three years and five months. Her personal interests include watching and playing sport, reading and spending quality time with her family and friends.